Little is still known as to the Great GOF Zombie Sample Insurrection - which Emil still claims them to have been nothing more than Peaceful demonstrations for equal housing rights for GOF Zombies Samples in Ward 5 and which the Special Prosecutor appointed by none other than Little Joey Buyhim himself, the National Guard and the few civil authorities who had left on day one for a fact finding, research trip to Cancun to once and for all establish that PS50 suntan lotion is far superior to regular coco-butter used by locals at the Cancun Beach; they all beg to disagree with Emil's bold assessment as to the true nature of what Emil is claimed to have been peaceful protest.

The truth of what happened may never be known as records already being sealed by shady little government geeks who ran all about waving court issued gag orders and restraining orders.

What is known is this all started with reports from the

Her last telex expressed her frustration with Emil and was pondering the need to turn him into a Gis-Gis Zombie in order to reestablish her control over the center.

served as a catalyst to the Governor declaring a state of emergency and deploring units of the National Guard to lockdown all of Ward 5 is lost in the "Fog" of the Zombie Uprising.

Much of the lack of news came after a scurry of Federal Officials from a variety of government agencies (whose names consist of alphabetic letters) arrived and with (reportedly) direct assistance from CNNister and other legacy media to shut down this entire event as "Nothing to see here...LOOK! It's Puppies in drag!" diversion storyline(s). We attempted to have several off-the-record conversations with junior members of the strike, response force and from what we can piece together; this is not only a CDC Emergency but a national security issue as it seems that they are aware that a majority of these Emil GOF Zombie Samples were created in an outlaw GOF Sample Lab right outside of the city of Burbank which they implied might have been funded by the NHS and the "Old Beagle Guy" (Old Doc F) himself.

Being rather familiar with that outlaw sample lab and how Emil secured GOF Zombie Sample research funds through his old school chum (Eric) and his gal pal, Ms. Fang-Fang; we beat a quick retreat from the screening gates that had been established by the National Guard to restrict the spread of GOF Zombie Sample Syndrome. Screening has proven difficult due to the fact that ZSS infected denizens seemed normal until the screeners engaged them in extended conversations which would (then) clearly demonstrate verbal indication(s) of ZSS where a screenie's conversation would be peppered with the usage of incorrect pronouns and/or they would physically (freely) use any number of CDC Banned "action" verbs sometimes, mixed with a stubborn demeanor of antiwookie "common sense."

and the willingness to detain or (reportedly) disappear people into what we are told are several re-activated FEMA Re-Education Training Centers or Transit camps at the railheads just south of the city; we put our "Rent-a-Yugo" sedan in reverse (well...we did have to get out a push it backwards at first) and hightailed it back to the airport hoping that our flight has not been delayed or that they would be already screening passengers for ZSS at the gate.

@ THE AIRPORT

The airport looked very much unchanged. It was much the same as we had left it the other day in trying to reach Emil. There were (still) thousands of semi-stranded passengers milling about as they tried to find enough space to bed down for the long haul wait that was still upon them; giving this International Airport the resemblances of a homeless encampment rather than a International Airport.

I asked a serious looking security guard over by the TSA Security Zone as to why all these people were still camped out and after a quick look around, he confided in us that the government had shut down all domestic flights and that is all that he had been told.

"How about International?"

I asked him without showing the panic that had just grabbed me by the short-hairs.

He shook his head and said that overseas flights were still going more or else on schedule.

I yelled "Thanks" as we made a serious rush to the TSA Screening Area.

Everything seemed normal and it didn't seem that TSA had beefed up it's skeleton crews. Quickly look about showed that there were no national guard or Feds lurking in the shadows. "Maybe, we are going to luck out?"

Old Lady Luck and her pet pit bull "Karma" seems to have called in a small miracle from her summer home in Tulsa. It was just another normal day with the lines stretched back towards the lobby as we nudged slowly forward through a large assembly of passengers who seemed to live for the opportunity to argue with some under-paid TSA Worker that their lotion bottles were not over three-ounces.

Here and there, we saw telltale signs of random passengers who seemed to be in the early stages of ZSS but we pretended not to notice in fear we might draw the attention of the TSA and create a panic - so, we just turned away and happily smiled as we got closer to the airport's scanners.

No problem(s) with security although, the sweet, young gal didn't know where or what Singapore was but, it was a passport and she let me pass without a second thought.

Our flight was still showing on schedule and we made a beeline to our gate.

In ten minutes and change, we would be on our plane and far away from all of this zombie madness that was brewing over in Ward 5.

FOR THE REST OF THE STORY

Needless to say, we finally arrived back in Singapore and had to do a 2-week quarantine to insure we were not infected with the now famous ZSS.

Emil, as far as we understand is locked in the Ward 5 drunk tank and is too stranded as those Government Goonies actually built a fence around the ward not allowing anyone to leave.

From news reports out of a small number of independent news podcasts, it seems that there is still a sizeable population inside.

CNNister and the legacy news claim they have no time to report on the situation as they are doing 24/7 "Breaking News" on the celebrity divorce trial of the decade of those two Lesbian dogs who starred in the canine remake of "All the President's Men" or as it was retitled "The Watergate Dogs."

Independent journalists continue to cover numerous reports that the national guard is now throwing food over the main gate three times a day to those lucky enough to catch the cases of c-rations.

What's with Emil?

Well, from what we have discovered, it seems that Emil was being held (awaiting a hearing date) in Ward 5's drunk tank as it was more secure than the county courthouse when the Governor declared a state of emergency, the national guard started stringing concentra wire to isolate Ward 5 and most local officials including the guy with the drunk tank cell keys left for a factchecker trip to Cancun leaving Emil and related rift raft all locked up without a key.

We have contacted the local Red Cross to check in on these helpless bums left stranded with the likes of Emil (if any of them survive, I see a massive class-action suit for cruelty not in being left behind but, being left behind with Emil).

Seems that a cadre of loyal GOF Zombie Samples formed a lifeline to Emil and have (so far) successfully bummed smokes for the other inmates and happy meal that were reportedly calling out Emil by name.

This was encouraging while it did expose the dark underbelly of this government lockdown where a large number of Zombie Samples and a growing number of denizen who appeared to be infected with ZSS have simply been disappeared from Ward 5.

We contacted local civil defense authorities for the city with these reports and they have decline any comments of these disappearances and the unfolding social welfare crisis at Ward 5's drunk tank.

So, we have assembled this book with the faces of a few of the untold number(s) of Emil's GOF Zombie Samples that have been reported missing.

In the past, we would have sponsored a traditional method of posting the pictures of the missing on milk cartons.

We were informed by our marketing team that the dairy industry have abandon milk cartons in favor of plastic jugs.

I see this as strange. Was there/is there a secret conspiracy by the Corporate Congress to hid the true level of disappeared and trafficked?

Indeed I hope that this was done for a cost saving factor instead of a secret plot to hide the growing rumors circulating that this sudden change to plastic jugs represents growing PR concerns by the donor classes over ever breaking news that Epstein's Island was only the tip of the iceberg of human trafficking. In fact, I have been told that had Epstein lived, he was planning to remake Gilligan's Island with a new century version that combines other reality shows (16 and pregnant, the Bachelor and

Just saying what I have heard.

Don't be such a hater?

Have you been to the island?

Just asking as that might explain your deep angry and demands that Emil be cancelled or so Emil has claimed.

Let me conclude by reminding the angry Wookie Twit Warriors typing away; Emil does not work for WWWG and thus, can't be cancelled!
